

Wapsie Valley FFA finds Success at Subdistrict Competition

By Natalie Risse, Chapter Reporter

On Wednesday, February 24, 31 members of the Wapsie Valley FFA Chapter traveled to Hawkeye Community College to compete in the Leadership Development Event at the subdistrict level. These competitions are events that strengthen members' leadership and career skills, which can be used throughout their entire lives.

One member, Lottie Von Keickebusch, took the greenhand quiz and received a bronze rating. 13 members took the chapter quiz. The placing is as follows:

Bronze Rating: Landen Kuhlmann, Jackson Willey.

Silver Rating: Grant Grober, Megan Lahmann, Karissa Michael, Delaney Mohlis, Sidney Schnor, and Sean Banger

Gold Rating: Erika Jeanes (13th), Lynn Duffy & Dayten Wittenburg (8th), Jacob Hammitt (3rd), and Natalie Risse (1st).

The following members participated in a Leadership Development Event:

- Lakin Joerger - Ag Broadcasting - 3rd Gold, Alternate to District Competition
- Carson Woods - Ag Sales - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Anna Richards - FFA Creed - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Karissa Michael - Extemporaneous Speaking - 2nd Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Natalie Risse - Public Speaking - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Jacob Hammitt, Dayten Wittenburg, Delaney Mohlis - Chapter Program - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Jacob Risse, Julia LaRue, Lydia Martins, Trystan Lampe, and Olivia Willey - Parliamentary Procedure - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition

- Hannah Miller, Bryce Kleitsch, Brittany Shover, Sam Schnor, Reily Richards, Kennadi Neil, and Sloane Banger - Conduct of Meetings - 1st Gold, Advance to District Competition
- Jacob Joerger - Job Interview - Gold Rating

All participants had great performances and represented the Wapsie Valley FFA Chapter very well.

Caption:

(Subdistricts): Members of the Wapsie Valley FFA participated in Subdistrict Competition on February 22 at Hawkeye Community College.